

CONGRESS TO PUT COUNTRY ON PEACE BASIS SATURDAY

Adjournment Is Scheduled For Late Saturday.

REST TILL DECEMBER

Return of All Civilian Activities Is the Aim of Houses.

Washington, June 5.—President Wilson today denounced the congress for its failure to enact constitutional legislation in a telegram addressed to the organization.

The president's telegram was in reply to one he received yesterday from the heads of 17 railroad labor organizations protesting against the adjournment of congress when no constructive legislation had been enacted to prevent profiteering or to reduce the high cost of living.

The president scored congress for its failure to "deal directly with the cost of living" and for its failure to "revise the tax laws which in their present form are indirectly responsible in part for the high cost of living."

"It is perfectly evident to all that the dominating motive which has actuated this congress is political expediency," the president declared.

Washington, June 5.—Congress adjourns at 4 o'clock this afternoon until the first Monday in December unless convened in extraordinary session by the president before that time.

The return before adjournment of all civilian activities of the government to a peace basis is the aim of the senate and house leaders. The last measure directed toward that end, the repeal of all war legislation except the trading with the enemy and the Lever food control act, is scheduled for final passage before the hour of adjournment.

During the present session congress has provided for:

The return of the railroads to private ownership.

Establishment of railroad legislation guaranteeing railroads dividends to be fixed by the rate adjustments of the interstate commerce commission.

Legislation for opening waterpower resources of the country for private development under government control.

REORGANIZE MILITARY.

Reorganization of the army and military system.

Congress also refused to grant the president power to enter into negotiations for the establishment of a mandate over Armenia.

Reconsidered the Versailles treaty peace in the senate and defeated on the second time on March 19 and returned it rejected to the president.

Passed legislation providing for the resumption of a state of peace which was vetoed by the president. Failed to pass it over the president's veto.

Increased salaries of postal employees approximately 20 per cent.

Passed oil land leasing legislation.

The bill for the establishment of a merchant marine under the United States flag remains in conference, the house refusing to agree to the report of the conferees.

Minimum wage legislation for government employees was side tracked.

Appropriation bills totaling $2,189,000,000 were passed to operate the departments and functions of the civil, military and naval arms of the government for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Soldier aid legislation passed the house.

TESTIFIES $83,000 SPENT FOR HOOVER DURING CAMPAIGN

Gregory Tells Of Work In Pacific Coast States.

Washington, June 5.—Before the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures, Warren Gregory, president of the Hoover Republican club of California, testified that the total expenses incurred in California in connection with the Johnson-Hoover primary fight there and in other Pacific coast states amounted to $83,210.72.

Mr. Gregory testified that there were many subscribers to the Hoover fund and that the largest subscription received was for $3,000 "from a lifelong friend of Mr. Hoover." He denied charges of the Johnson managers that there were many hired workers, declaring that almost all of the workers were volunteers.

INCREASES CAPITAL STOCK.

Richmond, Va., June 5.—Stockholders of the Stewart-Warner Speedometer Corporation, in special session, authorized an increase in the capital stock of the corporation from 400,000 to 600,000 shares of no par value.

Of the new issue 60,000 shares will be used to acquire the Stewart Manufacturing Corporation through exchange of stock, on the basis of share-for-share and the remaining 540,000 shares will be left in the treasury.

Second Place Not For Johnson.

Chicago, June 3.—That Senator Hiram Johnson of California means to make an uncompromising fight for the Republican presidential nomination was seen in the statement here that "under no circumstances" would he accept a nomination for the vice presidency. The statement issued from Johnson headquarters.

Judge E. D. Smith is an applicant for appointment as referee in bankruptcy in Greene county, to succeed Attorney W. S. Howard, whose term expires in July. Mr. Howard had tendered his resignation from the office to the late Judge Hollister, and accepted it for another term at his request. There are no other applicants for the appointment with the exception of Judge Smith who has received the endorsement of the most of the members of the bar.

Washington, June 5.—President Wilson vetoed the bill to establish a national budget system.

The measure was held by the president to be unconstitutional, because it took from the chief executive the power to remove the comptroller general and the assistant comptroller general, officers who would be appointed by him with the advice and consent of the senate.

The president said he returned the measure without his approval "with the greatest regret," because he "was in entire sympathy" with its objects. He added that he returned it at the "earliest possible moment, with the hope that congress may find time before adjournment to remedy this defect."

PLAGUE ON DECLINE

Mexico City June 5.—Favorable news concerning the bubonic plague outbreak in Vera Cruz was received today. Advice from the city reported only one case and that at Purga, near Vera Cruz.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Senator Penrose will not attend the national Republican convention. This word was brought here by Pennsylvania politicians. A wire has been installed in the senator's sickroom at Philadelphia and his friends here will keep him advised of every step in the convention's progress.

Decisions of the Republican national committee, which disposed of 25 contests for seats in the national convention of the party, brought a charge of "steam roller" tactics from Senator Moses of New Hampshire, who conducted General Wood's pre-convention campaign in southern states. He issued a statement saying: "Evidently a mistake has been made. The steam roller which was used so effectively in the convention of 1912 and with such disastrous results to the party in the election following, has not been scrapped after all. It has merely been in the machine shop for repairs and for some new attachments. The Wood strength, plus the Johnson strength, easily controls the convention; and while the national committee may be too shortsighted to know that what they are doing is making a coalition of these two forces inevitable, there are other people discerning enough to see it."

Lowden forces were jubilant over new decisions.

SHEETS COUNSEL FILES MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL ON SATURDAY

Hearing On Petition Set For Monday, June the 14th.

Immediately after a verdict had been returned by the jury Friday afternoon, finding George W. Sheets, former clerk of the courts, guilty of the charge of embezzling $4,708, a motion for a new trial was filed by his counsel, C. L. Darlington and F. L. Johnson.

Judge R. L. Cameron of Marysville, the trial judge, set Monday, June 14, as the date for hearing arguments on the motion.

Mr. Sheets heard the jury's verdict without changing expression. His wife and sister who had sat at his side throughout the trial, remained in the corridor when the jury came in with its verdict. The court room was crowded with people who had waited for more than two hours to hear the verdict, and they left quietly when it was announced.

A. F. O. L. To Make Demand On Senate at Convention.

Montreal, Que., June 5.—Demand that the American senate repudiate the report on Mexico made by the committee headed by Senator Fall will be made during the convention of the American Federation of Labor which will open here Monday it was learned today. Those leading the opposition to the report charge that it was inspired by oil interests and other exploiters of Mexican resources. They allege further that Senator Fall's activities are imperilling the Latin American countries faith in the United States government. The convention is expected to denounce in Mexico and demand that the time in Mexico an demand that the United States maintain a hands off policy.

Revocation of the charter of the New York building trades council was demanded at the annual meeting of the building trades department of the federation. The demand which was made by the International Hod Carriers Building and Common Laborers union was referred to committee. The New York council is charged with recognizing dual unions.

There is a talk of a movement of a younger element to try to wrest control of the federation from the old guard but it is generally conceded that Samuel Gompers will be elected president. Reports are current that John J. Hynes of Chicago, president of the sheet metal workers international union will oppose Joseph F. Valentine of Cincinnati in the election of a new executive council Hynes is a "progressive."

The recent steel strike is expected to cause a hot fight and bitter attacks against John Fitzpatrick and W. Z. Foster are looked for. These men directed the steel strike.

CHARLES BONE PASSES EXAM; NEW POLICE

Charles Bone, ex-soldier, received the highest grade in the civil service examination for patrolman on the Police Department conducted Friday evening and was immediately appointed by City Manager Kenyon Riddle.

Fred Jones and John Lock were other applicants for the position who took the examination. Bone received a grade of 90 per cent, while Jones' grade was 85 per cent. Lock was unable to pass the examination.

The new patrolman has an excellent army career back of him, having served for two years in the Canadian Army and three years in the United States Army, part of which time he was in the Philippines. He has worked as extra man for several nights recently. His appointment takes effect at once.

Mexico City June 5.—Favorable news concerning the bubonic plague outbreak in Vera Cruz was received today. Advice from the city reported only one case and that at Purga, near Vera Cruz.

Not the terrible 'Ladies from Hell,' fighting their way through the ruins of Ypres but peacefully marching through that famed Belgian city, the famous Royal Highlanders, who will go down in history as the "Black Watch" acted as guard of honor accompanying Lord French during his recent visit to Ypres. The ruins of the famous Cloth Hall which will remain through the centuries as a symbol of German culture.

CARTER GLASS TO BE REPRESENTATIVE OF WILSON AT MEET

Will Be President's Right Hand Man at Convention.

Washington, June 5.—Senator Carter Glass, a potential presidential candidate, will be one of President Wilson's representatives at the San Francisco convention it was learned today. According to information in White House circles, the president will depend largely on Senator Glass and Secretary of the Interior John Barton Payne to execute his orders on the floor of the Democratic convention.

Senator Glass, it was learned, is already "loaded for bear." The Virginia senator has prepared a lengthy speech which he will deliver in the convention in answer to any attack which may be made upon the administration of President Wilson. It is understood that Senator Glass is particularly well prepared to offer an answer to William Jennings Bryan on the treaty question. The president has given Senator Glass full value of his views on the treaty and the Virginia senator has drawn a powerful argument in favor of the convention going on record as favoring immediate ratification of the peace treaty with reservations further than interpretative.

While the White House maintains an amazing political silence there is considerable speculation here as to the possibility of the president endorsing Senator Glass as his choice for the Democratic nomination. Senator Glass has the pledged support of the Virginia delegation, but his friends declare that he is not considering himself as a candidate at present.

STATEMENTS ISSUED

Uninstructed Delegates Hold Balance of Power Next Week.

Chicago, June 5.—Senator Penrose will not attend the national Republican convention. This word was brought here by Pennsylvania politicians. A wire has been installed in the senator's sickroom at Philadelphia and his friends here will keep him advised of every step in the convention's progress.

Decisions of the Republican national committee, which disposed of 25 contests for seats in the national convention of the party, brought a charge of "steam roller" tactics from Senator Moses of New Hampshire, who conducted General Wood's pre-convention campaign in southern states. He issued a statement saying: "Evidently a mistake has been made. The steam roller which was used so effectively in the convention of 1912 and with such disastrous results to the party in the election following, has not been scrapped after all. The Wood strength, plus the Johnson strength, easily controls the convention; and while the national committee may be too shortsighted to know that what they are doing is making a coalition of these two forces inevitable, there are other people discerning enough to see it."

Lowden forces were jubilant over national committee decisions in delegate contests, which, they say, add 25 delegates to the Lowden column, with a like loss to General Wood's. Senator Johnson, while the committee was weighing the Lowden-Wood contests, launched statements on his campaign plans and platform planks and also told of rumors of attempts to make inroads on his instructed delegates.

Wood's Statement.

Wood also gave out a statement, declaring Colonel William Cooper Procter and Frank H. Hitchcock, his managers, were working in complete harmony and loyalty. The general vigorously denied reports that Procter was being subordinated to Hitchcock. From other quarters came increased talk of "dark horse" entries. It came with the arrival of more national leaders and also many delegates.

Presidential row also got another tenant, in the arrival of Senator Poinsett of Washington, and word was received that Senator Harding of Ohio and Senator Sutherland of West Virginia would reach here Sunday. Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of New York is due today.

Developments are said by leaders to leave the nomination still "in the air," with the uninstructed delegates holding the balance to decide the outcome. In the "dark horse" discussion names figuring prominently included Coolidge of Massachusetts, Allen of Kansas and Sproul of Pennsylvania.

Governor Lowden gave out a statement repudiating delegates from Missouri receiving Lowden funds and said there was a movement to have them denied convention seats.

Improved prospects of the Johnson candidacy were claimed and often conceded in some opposition quarters. In the latter it was frequently said that the Johnson movement "appeared to be growing" and that, although behind in instructed delegates, the senator appeared to be formidable. Foes of the Californian, however, were equally confident he would not capture the convention by storm.

EAGLES INITIATE MEMBERS SUNDAY

Members of Xenia Aerie, No. 1689, Fraternal Order of Eagles, are anticipating one of the biggest events of the season in the initiation of candidates which will take place here Sunday.

Twenty five candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the order at that time, the exercises beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon. The Springfield degree team will have charge of the work. In the evening the members of the lodge will enjoy a smoker. Eagles from Dayton, Springfield and other cities in this vicinity are expected to attend.

BONILLAS IS RELEASED.

Washington, June 5.—Former Ambassador Ygnacio Bonillas, who has been imprisoned in Mexico City since the time of Carranza's death, was released from prison on June 2, according to official advice to the state department.

Elihu Root

Great Britain France and Spain are also interested in the controversy. Mr. Root will also serve on the American committee which will hold its first meeting at The Hague on June 15 to formulate plans for a permanent court of the League of Nations.

FRENCH REQUISITION BEET SUGAR CROP; URGES U. S. PURCHASE

Sugar In Czechoslovakia Offered Country.

New York, June 5.—The United States should purchase all the sugar available for export in Czechoslovakia, to give that country the credit needed to purchase phosphates to fertilize its sugar crops and at the same time to "break the Cubans' hold on America," Irving Schwartz, an importer, testified here today before the joint legislative committee investigating profiteering.

"The United States has refused to grant Czechoslovakia enough credit to permit her to purchase this phosphate," Mr. Schwartz said. Results of the purchase of all Czechoslovakia's export sugar would be to almost treble that country's sugar production and reduce the price here of the commodity, Mr. Schwartz declared.

A cable message received by a sugar brokerage firm here stated that the French government had requisitioned the entire beet sugar crop of that country for 1920 and 1921 and also will take over the production of the French colonies.

TWENTY FOUR CLASSES AT COLLEGE BANQUET

All of the 24 classes that have graduated from Cedarville college, were represented at the alumni banquet which was held Thursday night in the dining rooms of the Reformed Presbyterian church at Cedarville.

There were covers for eighty. William R. Collins was toastmaster, and talks were made by Morton Creswell, representing the graduating class of 1920; the Rev. J. Alvin Orr, Pittsburgh; the Rev. Homer McMillan of Atlanta, Ga., both of whom graduated in the first class; President W. R. McChesney, Attorney J. K. Williamson, Xenia, Merle G. Rife, and Mrs. Anna Orr Wilson.

A three course supper was served. The tables were decorated in pink and white, the colors of the graduating class.

A suit against the bonding company to recover the amount of Mr. Sheets' shortage is pending in the court of common pleas.

Any One of Eight Prominent Candidates Has Chance.

DARK HORSE PROBABLE

Bewilderment Prevails As Delegates Gather at Chicago.

Chicago, June 5.—These were the unprecedented features of the Republican situation today on the eve of convention week.

From the practical political standpoint the convention is leaderless and the incoming delegates show general symptoms of bewilderment.

Any one of the eight prominently mentioned presidential candidates is now an actual possibility, although the week's developments have badly shuffled the cards of Lowden and Wood.

A dark horse is not improbable: Probably not more than a third of the total number of delegates of 984, are actually under pledge and many of these pledges are wobbly. The

the charge of embezzling $4,708, a motion for a new trial was filed by his counsel, C. L. Darlington and F.
L. Johnson.

Judge R. L. Cameron of Marysville,
the trial judge, set Monday, June 14,
as the date for hearing arguments on
the motion.

Mr. Sheets heard the jury's verdict without changing expression.
His wife and sister who had sat at
his side throughout the trial, remained in the corridor when the jury
came in with its verdict. The court room was crowded with people who had waited for more than two hours
to hear the verdict, and they left
quietly when it was announced.

INCREASES CAPITAL STOCK.
Richmond, Va., June 5.—Stockholders of the Stewart-Warner Speedo-
meter Corporation, in special session,
authorized an increase in the capital
stock of the corporation from 400,000
to 600,000 shares of no par value.
Of the new issue 60,000 shares will be used to acquire the Stewart Manufacturing Corporation through exchange of stock, on the basis of
share-for-share and the remaining 140,000 shares will be left in the treasury.

A. F. O. L. To Make Demand On Senate at Convention.

Montreal, Que., June 5.—Demand
that the American senate repudiate
the report on Mexico made by the committee headed by Senator Fall
will be made during the convention
of the American Federation of Labor
which will open here Monday it was learned today. Those leading the opposition to the report charge that it was inspired by oil interests and other exploiters of Mexican resources. They allege further that Senator Fall's activities are imperiling
the Latin American countries faith
in the United States government.
The convention is expected to determine in Mexico and demand that the time in Mexico an demand that the United States maintain a hands off policy.

Revocation of the charter of the New York building trades council
was demanded at the annual meeting of the building trades department of the federation. The demand was made by the International Hod Carriers Building and Common Laborers union who opposed committee. The New York council is charged with recognizing dual unions.

There is a talk of a movement of
a younger element to try to wrest control of the federation from the old guard but it is generally conceded
that Samuel Gompers will be elected president. Reports are current that John J. Hynes of Chicago, president of the sheet metal workers
international union will oppose Joseph F. Valentine of Cincinnati in the election of a new executive council Hynes is a "progressive."

The recent steel strike is expected to cause a hot fight and bitter attacks against John Fitzpatrick and W. Z. Foster are looked for. These men directed the steel strike.

CHARLES BONE PASSES EXAM; NEW POLICE

Charles Bone, ex-soldier, received
the highest grade in the civil service examination for patrolman on the Police Department conducted Friday
evening and was immediately appointed by City Manager Kenyon Riddle.

Fred Jones and John Lock were
other applicants for the position who took the examination. Bone received a grade of 90 per cent, while Jones' grade was 85 per cent. Lock
was unable to pass the examination.

The new patrolman has an excellent army career back of him, having served for two years in the Canadian Army and three years in the United States Army, part of which time he was in the Philippines. He has worked as extra man for several nights
recently. His appointment takes effect at once.

JUDGE SMITH IS ONLY APPLICANT

Judge E. D. Smith is an applicant
for appointment as referee in bankruptcy in Cuyahoga county, to succeed
Attorney W. S. Howard, whose term expires in July. Mr. Howard had tendered his resignation from the office to the late Judge Hollister, and accepted it for another term at his request. There are no other applicants for the appointment with the exception of Judge Smith who has received the endorsement of the most of the members of the bar.

Second Place Not For Johnson.
Chicago, June 3.—That Senator Hillam Johnson of California means to make an uncompromising fight for the Republican presidential nomination was seen in the statement here
that "under no circumstances" would
he accept a nomination for the vice presidency. The statement issued from Johnson headquarters.

CARTER GLASS TO BE REPRESENTATIVE OF WILSON AT MEET

Will Be President's Right Hand Man At Convention.

Washington, June 5.—Senator Carter Glass, a potential presidential candidate, will be one of President Wilson's representatives at the San Francisco convention; it was learned today. According to information in White House circles, the president
will depend largely on Senator Glass
and Secretary of the Interior John Barton Payne to execute his orders
on the floor of the Democratic convention.

Senator Glass, it was learned, is already "loaded for bear." The Virginia senator has prepared a lengthy speech which he will deliver in the convention in answer to any attack
which may be made upon the administration of President Wilson. It is understood that Senator Glass is particularly well prepared to offer an answer to William Jennings Bryan on the treaty question. The president has given Senator Glass full value of his views on the treaty and the Virginia senator has drawn a powerful
argument in favor of the convention
going on record as favoring immediate ratification of the peace treaty
with nothing further than interpretative reservations.

While the White House maintains an amazing political silence there is considerable speculation here as to the possibility of the president endorsing Senator Glass as his choice for the Democratic nomination. Senator Glass has the pledged support of the Virginia delegation, but his friends
declare that he is not considering
himself as a candidate at present.

NATIONAL BUDGET MEASURE IS VETOED UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Wilson Returns Bill To
the Senate Without Signature.

Washington, June 5. — President
Wilson vetoed the bill to establish a national budget system.

The measure was held by the president to be unconstitutional, because it took from the chief executive the power to remove the comptroller general and the assistant comptroller
general, officers who would be appointed by him with the advice and consent of the senate.

The president said he returned the measure without his approval "with
the greatest regret," because he "was
in entire sympathy" with its objects.
He added that he returned it at the "earliest possible moment, with the hope that congress may find time before adjournment to remedy this defect."

PLAGUE ON DECLINE

SELECTION OF NOMINEE STILL IN AIR AS LEADERLESS REPUBLICAN DELEGATES FACE UNPRECEDENTED SITUATION

Lowden Forces Are Jubilant Over New Decisions.

STATEMENTS ISSUED

Uninstructed Delegates
Hold Balance of Power
Next Week.

Chicago, June 5.—Senator Root
will not attend the national Republican convention. This word was brought here by Pennsylvania politicians. A wire has been installed in the senator's sickroom at Philadelphia and his friends here will keep him advised of every step in the convention's progress.

Decisions of the Republican national committee, which disposed of 25 contests for seats in the national convention of the party, brought a charge of "steam roller" tactics from Senator Moses of New Hampshire,
who conducted General Wood's pre-convention campaign in southern states. He issued a statement saying: "Evidently a mistake has been made. The steam roller which was used so effectively in the convention
of 1912 and with such disastrous results to the party in the election following, has not been scrapped after
all. It has merely been in the machine shop for repairs and for some
new attachments. The Wood strength,
plus the Johnson strength, easily controls the convention; and while the national committee may be too short-sighted to know that what they are doing is making a coalition of these two forces inevitable, there are other
people discerning enough to see it."

Lowden forces were jubilant over
national committee decisions in delegate contests, which, they say, add 25 delegates to the Lowden column.
With a like loss to General Wood's.
Senator Johnson, while the committee was weighing the Lowden-
Wood contests, launched statements
on his campaign plans and platform
plans and also told of rumors of attempts to make inroads on his instructed delegates.

Wood's Statement.

Wood also gave out a statement declaring Colonel William Cooper Procter and Frank H. Hitchcock, his managers, were working in complete harmony and loyalty. The general vigorously denied reports that Procter
was being subordinated to Hitchcock.
From other quarters came increased talk of "dark horse" entries. It came with the arrival of more national
leaders and also many delegates.

Presidential row also got another
tenant, in the arrival of Senator Pin-dexter of Washington, and word was received that Senator Harding of Ohio
and Senator Sutherland of West Virginia would reach here Sunday. Dr.
Nicholas Murray Butler of New York
is due today.

Developments are said by leaders
to leave the nomination still "in the air," with the uninstructed delegates
holding the balance to decide the outcome. In the "dark horse" discussion
names figuring prominently included
Coolidge of Massachusetts, Allen of Kansas and Sproul of Pennsylvania.

Governor Lowden gave out a statement repudiating delegates from Missouri receiving Lowden funds and said there was a movement to have them denied convention seats.

Improved prospects of the Johnson
campaign were claimed and often
conceded in some opposition quarters.
In the latter it was frequently said
that the Johnson movement "appeared to be growing" and that, although behind in instructed delegates,
the senator appeared to be formidable. Foes of the Californian, however, were equally confident he would not capture the convention by storm.

EAGLES INITIATE MEMBERS SUNDAY

Members of Xenia Aerie, No. 1689, Fraternal Order of Eagles, are anticipating one of the biggest events of the season in the initiation of candidates which will take place here Sunday.

Twenty five candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the order
at that time, the exercises beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon. The Springfield degree team will have charge of the work. In the evening
the members of the lodge will enjoy a smoker. Eagles from Dayton, Springfield and other cities in this vicinity
are expected to attend.

BONILLAS IS RELEASED.

Washington, June 5.—Former Ambassador Ygnacio Bonillas, who has been imprisoned in Mexico City since the time of Carranza's death, was released from prison on June 2, according to official advices to the state department.

ROOT TO HEAD COUNT

Elihu Root

Elihu Root, of New York, sailed
recently aboard the Nieuw Amsterdam
to serve as President of the Allied Court which will arbitrate
the ownership of church lands seized
by the Portuguese during the revolution in Portugal twelve years ago. Great Britain France and Spain
are also interested in the controversy. Mr. Root will also serve on the American committee which will hold its first meeting at The Hague
on June 15 to formulate plans for a permanent court of the League of Nations.

FRENCH REQUISITION BEET SUGAR CROP; URGES U. S. PURCHASE

Sugar In Czech-
Slovakia Offered
Country.

New York, June 5.—The United States should purchase all the sugar
available for export in Czech-Slovakia, to give that country the credit
needed to purchase phosphates to fertilize its sugar crops and at the same time to "break the Cubans' hold on America," Irving Schwartz, an importer, testified here today before the joint legislative committee investigating profiteering.

"The United States has refused to grant Czech-Slovakia enough credit
to permit her to purchase this phosphate," Mr. Schwartz said. Results of the purchase of all Czech-Slovakia's export sugar would be to almost treble that country's sugar production and reduce the price here of the commodity, Mr. Schwartz declared.

A cable message received by a sugar brokerage firm here stated that the French government had requisitioned
the entire beet sugar crop of that country for 1920 and 1921 and
also will take over the production of the French colonies.

TWENTY FOUR CLASSES AT COLLEGE BANQUET

All of the 24 classes that have graduated from Cedarville college,
were represented at the alumni banquet which was held Thursday night
in the dining rooms of the Reformed-
Presbyterian church at Cedarville.

There were covers for eighty.
William R. Collins was toastmaster,
and talks were made by Morton Cres-
well, representing the graduating class of 1920; the Rev. J. Alvin Orr, Pittsburgh; the Rev. Homer Mc-Millan of Atlanta, Ga., both of whom graduated in the first class; President W. R. McChesney, Attorney J.
K. Williamson, Xenia; Merle G. Rife,
and Mrs. Anna Orr Wilson.

A three course supper was served.
The tables were decorated in pink
and white, the colors of the graduating class.

CHECK UP ON BOOKS OF FORMER CLERK

E. F. Eversham and an assistant,
in the employ of R. J. Beaman, certified accountant of Cincinnati are engaged in checking up the books
and accounts of former Clerk of the Courts George W. Sheets for the National Surety Company of New York which furnished Mr. Sheets
bond.

A suit against the bonding company to recover the amount of Mr.
Sheets' shortage is pending in the court of common pleas.

Any One of Eight Prominent Candidates Has Chance.

DARK HORSE PROBABLE

Bewilderment Prevails As Delegates Gather at Chicago.

Chicago, June 5.—These were the unprecedented features of the Republican situation today on the eve of convention week.

From the practical political standpoint the convention is leaderless and
the incoming delegates show general
symptoms of bewilderment.

Any one of the eight prominently
mentioned presidential candidates is now an actual possibility, although
the week's developments have badly
shuffled the cards of Lowden and Wood.

A dark horse is not improbable:
Probably not more than a third of the total number of delegates of 984,
are actually under pledge and many
of these pledges are wobbly.

The prevailing confusion is a bro-
breved of these elements:

The prevailing confusion is a bro-
Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Senator
Penrose's serious illness, the strange mixture of the southern delegates who heretofore have been "delivered" at
the psychological moment of late years
by Frank Hitchcock; party disputes
concerning the form of the treaty of peace and pre-eminently the failure
of any strong hand to assert general
party control.

Puzzle Presented
How to hold and swing this amazingly confused mass is the puzzle of machine leaders who have never before participated in a Republican convention which did not respond to the dictates of one or more dominating practical leaders. The best they can predict now is that the convention
will take form, that leadership will assert itself and sentiment for a candidate consolidate upon the shoulders
of a man who will satisfy.

The New York delegation is a case
in point, though it exaggerates the situation. It numbers 88. They will arrive on Sunday. They are unpledged,
except as they are expected to yield the usual "favorite son" honors
on the first ballot. A meeting of the delegation will be held on Monday to canvass the candidates. But there is no pronounced leader and after President Nicholas Murray Butler has been paid his compliment the members are likely to be free to drift with the prevailing political winds.

Wood has less than 200 instructed delegates; Johnson has little more than 100 instructed delegates and the third member of the "big three"—
Governor Lowden—has about the same.
The rest are split up among the various favorite sons, to whose support
they are not pledged after the first
several ballots.

After the first ballots these delegates are in imminent danger of splitting up into small groups so numerous
that to weld them together in a cohesive, voting mass would be a difficult task.

WILSON NAMES COAL WAGE COMMISSION IN ANTHRACITE FIELD

Will Settle the Controversy In Group Of Miners.

Washington, June 5.—A commission of three members, one each representing the public, the miners and
the operators, was appointed by President Wilson to settle a wage controversy in the anthracite fields. The members of the commission are: William O. Thompson, president of Ohio
State university, representing the public;
Nal J. Ferry of McAdoo, Pa., a member of the executive committee
of the United Mine Workers of America, representing the miners, and William L. Connell of Scranton, Pa.,
representing the operators.

The commission will hold hearings,
probably in Washington, and if possible will render its award within 60 days. Any increase in wages granted will be retroactive to April 1 and the awards will be made the basis for a new wage agreement, replacing that
which expired on that date.

Under the agreement by which the president intervened to have the controversy settled, both sides pledged
themselves to abide by the commission's decision.

Washington, June 5.—William F.
Spurgeon, aged 56, managing editor
of the Washington Post, died at his home here after a brief illness with typhoid fever.

of the Anti-Saloon League in California, died at San Bernardino.

ROUNDHOUSE HAS BASEBALL TEAM

A baseball team has been organized at the Roundhouse and has been practicing daily. Arrangements are now pending for a game between the Round House team and the Hoover & Allison aggregation on the afternoon of Saturday, June 12. Carl Hightley is captain of the new team. The lineup of which is not yet settled but presents some excellent baseball material. Hod Smith former Reserve and National pitcher and Mike Rachtford former catcher for the Nationals will likely form the battery.

HOME MADE RECIPE CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Aftershave and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germ will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-Feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-Feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, enemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you. Seven a day for seven days—Wonderful results.

WITHDRAW CHARGES AGAINST YOUTHS

Charges of assault and battery filed against Durward and William Derick and Elmer Owens following an alleged fight at Kilcare Park last Sunday night, were withdrawn on application of William Burns manager of the park, before Sheriff Funderburg and Prosecuting Attorney Harry D. Smith Friday afternoon.

Burns said he did not care to prosecute the case of assault and battery against the boys on promise that there would not be a recurrence. Burns was struck on the head during the trouble receiving a severe gash, which he believed to have been inflicted by a pop bottle wielded by Owens. It was brought out in the testimony at the settlement however, that Owens did not use the weapon and it was not known who struck Burns, as there was a number of other boys in the vicinity who were not arrested.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a married woman. I was married very young and have been married thirty-two years. My husband has always treated me mean and now he is worse than ever. He always thought more of other women than he did of me, and he has told me stories about them when I would find out what he was doing.

Now there is a woman in a small town and he has been going to see her several times a month. I have tried in every way to stop him, but nothing I can say or do seems to do any good. I have talked kindly to him about the way he does and have fussed at him. He has told me time and again that he cared nothing for me. When he goes to see her he treats me meaner and calls me everything he can think of that is cruel.

He always denies seeing her, but I can prove that he does and has been with her a number of times.

We have four grown children. Do you think it would be a disgrace to the children for me to sue for a divorce?

I do not think it would be a disgrace to the children for you to get a divorce. You must consider yourself in this matter, since the children are grown. You are not happy living with such a man and he does not deserve the home you are making for him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a lonely little girl seventeen years of age. I stay at home with my father and mother, though they do not seem to care for me as they do the rest of my sisters and brothers. My father gets very angry with me and calls me all kinds of things and has often told me he hated me and that he wished I would leave because I am not welcome at home. He treats my mother awfully, too.

I have been going with a boy for about two years and I love him dear-interest in you.

ly. He says he loves me. None of my people like him. He is a good boy, but his sister has acted very wrong and my people think bad of him for it. They have forbidden my going with him, but I cannot give him up. I love him better than life. What can I do?

I work very hard at home and never get a kind word or a smile. This boy has asked me to marry him this summer. If I did, could my people compel me to return home? I feel very lonely and desolate.

BROWN EYES.

You cannot marry without the consent of your parents until you are eighteen. Then you are of age and they cannot force you to return home.

I believe you should give up the boy as your parents ask you to. At the age of seventeen you are too young to know true love. Besides you are too inexperienced to place a wise judgment upon a person's character. The boy is probably as good as you think he is, but nevertheless it would be better to see what he is two or three years from now than to marry him now. It would be quite out of the question for a boy to earn enough money to support you in these hard times.

When you are eighteen years old leave home if you think best. You can get work and can locate yourself where people will want you and will smile appreciation at your efforts.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in love with a boy who works at the same factory I do. He is keeping company with another girl, but I don't think he loves her. He acts at times as if he really cared for me. How can I make sure?

DOLLY BLUE.

If he really cared for you he would relieve your mind of doubt by asking to call or to take you somewhere. There is nothing you should do to make him show more

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same. Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Aftershave and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you. Seven a day for seven days—Wonderful results.

WITHDRAW CHARGES AGAINST YOUTHS

Charges of assault and battery filed against Durward and William Derrick and Elmer Owens following an alleged fight at Kilkare Park last Sunday night, were withdrawn on application of William Burns manager of the park, before Sheriff Funderburg and Prosecuting Attorney Harry D Smith Friday afternoon.

Burns said he did not care to prosecute the case of assault and battery against the boys on promise that there would not be a recurrence. Burns was struck on the head during the trouble receiving a severe gash, which he believed to have been inflicted by a pop bottle wielded by Owens. It was brought out in the testimony at the settlement however, that Owens did not use the weapon and it was not known who struck Burns, as there was a number of other boys in the vicinity who were not arrested.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a married woman. I was married very young and have been married thirty-two years. My husband has always treated me mean and now he is worse than ever. He always thought more of other women than he did of me, and he has told me stories about them when I would find out what he was doing.

Now there is a woman in a small town and he has been going to see her several times a month. I have tried in every way to stop him, but nothing I can say or do seems to do any good. I have talked kindly to him about the way he does and have fussed at him. He has told me time and again that he cared nothing for me. When he goes to see her he treats me meaner and calls me everything he can think of that is cruel.

He always denies seeing her, but I can prove that he does and has been with her a number of times.

We have four grown children. Do you think it would be a disgrace to the children for me to sue for a divorce?

I do not think it would be a disgrace to the children for you to get a divorce. You must consider yourself in this matter, since the children are grown. You are not happy living with such a man and he does not deserve the home you are making for him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a lonely little girl seventeen years of age. I stay at home with my father and mother, though they do not seem to care for me as they do the rest of my sisters and brothers. My father gets very angry with me and calls me all kinds of things and has often told me he hated me and that he wished I would leave because I am not welcome at home. He treats my mother awfully, too.

I have been going with a boy for about two years and I love him dearly. He says he loves me. None of my people like him. He is a good boy, but his sister has acted very wrong and my people think bad of him for it. They have forbidden my going with him, but I cannot give him up. I love him better than life.

What can I do? I work very hard at home and never get a kind word or a smile. This boy has asked me to marry him this summer. If I did, could my people compel me to return home? I feel very lonely and desolate.

BROWN EYES.

You cannot marry without the consent of your parents until you are eighteen. Then you are of age and they cannot force you to return home.

I believe you should give up the boy as your parents ask you to. At the age of seventeen you are too young to know true love. Besides you are too inexperienced to place a wise judgment upon a person's character. The boy is probably as good as you think he is, but nevertheless it would be better to see what he is two or three years from now than to marry him now. It would be quite out of the question for a boy to earn enough money to support you in these hard times.

When you are eighteen years old leave home if you think best. You can get work and can locate yourself where people will want you and will smile appreciation at your efforts.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in love with a boy who works at the same factory I do. He is keeping company with another girl, but I don't think he loves her. He acts at times as if he really cared for me. How can I make sure?

DOLLY BLUE.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS FAIR POSTPONED TO WEEK OF JUNE 28

A decision to postpone the Soldiers and Sailors Fair to be given here at the rink under the auspices of Joseph P. Foody Post, No. 95, American Legion, one week was reached at meeting of committeemen held in the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening at which time the meeting was addressed by Donald Mackie and Nelson Ewing, of George Cullice Post, Springfield.

Mr. Mackie and Mr. Ewing were both identified with the successful fair staged in Springfield several weeks ago, and they were able to give the local committeemen important information in regard to the arrangements for the local affair. After consideration it was also decided to hold the fair here the week of June 28 to July 3, inclusive, in order to permit of more time in which to complete the arrangements.

The R. A. Kelly Co., of this city, was the first to comply with the request for subscriptions and donations with which to carry on the fair, this company giving a check for $100, to the committee on subscriptions and collections. A bulletin board will be maintained in a central location and a daily record of the subscribers and the amounts will be marked on it. The offering of the R. A. Kelly Co., is considered an excellent starter, and assures that the people of Xenia are with the ex-service men and want to help make the fair a success.

Tentative plans were laid for the big event at Friday night's meeting, and committees appointed to take care of various branches of entertainment. With the committeemen enthusiastic concerning the outcome of the fair, it is expected that the event will be one of the biggest ever held in this city.

The annual distribution of prizes by the Ohio Department of the Women's Relief Corps among pupils of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home schools for excellence in their work throughout the year, took place in the chapel at the institution Friday.

One hundred dollars was distributed in cash prizes ranging from $7 to 50 cents.

Earl Umpenhour, a senior, was awarded the highest prize, $7, and the second senior prize, $5.50, was awarded to Miss Mary Wilson, who was the winner of the prizes recently offered by the Cincinnati district and in Xenia city to the pupil submitting the best essay in the National War Department Contest.

Two prizes were given in each grade. The children in the kindergarten were given enough money for the purchase of a record for their phonograph.

After the prize distribution the children of the kindergarten and the first and second grades gave an excellent program. The kindergartners rendered songs and dialogues. Miss Quinn's first grade boys and girls gave patriotic drill. One of the second grades presented a drill called the "flower fairies," each child representing a flower by a huge paper blossom cut as a frame for its face. The other second grade gave "rose garlands," a drill.

Two small boys, Mervin Myers and James Collins, extended the thanks of the children to the committee which presented the prizes. The committee consisted of Mrs. Ella Candy, of Dayton, past department treasurer; Mrs. Catherine Kidd, Dayton, past department chaplain, and Mrs. Anna I. McCoy, of Wilmington, past department president.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS FAIR POSTPONED TO WEEK OF JUNE 28

A decision to postpone the Soldiers and Sailors Fair to be given here at the rink under the auspices of Joseph P. Foody Post, No. 95, American Legion, one week was reached at meeting of committeemen held in the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening at which time the meeting was addressed by Donald Mackie and Nelson Ewing, of George Cultice Post, Springfield.

Mr. Mackie and Mr. Ewing were both identified with the successful fair staged in Springfield several weeks ago, and they were able to give the local committeemen important information in regard to the arrangements for the local affair. After consideration it was also decided to hold the fair here the week of June 28 to July 3, inclusive, in order to permit of more time in which to complete the arrangements.

The R. A. Kelly Co., of this city, was the first to comply with the request for subscriptions and donations with which to carry on the fair, this company giving a check for $100, to the committee on subscriptions and collections. A bulletin board will be maintained in a central location and a daily record of the subscribers and the amounts will be marked on it. The offering of the R. A. Kelly Co., is considered an excellent starter, and assures that the people of Xenia are with the ex-service men and want to help make the fair a success.

Tentative plans were laid for the big event at Friday night's meeting, and committees appointed to take care of various branches of entertainment. With the committeemen enthusiastic concerning the outcome of the fair, it is expected that the event will be one of the biggest ever held in this city.

WHAT THEY ARE DOING AT CHICAGO TO MAKE OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.

With the arrival of Senator Hiram W. Johnson this afternoon and his vigorous declaration that he is determined that there shall be no "pussy-footing," evasion or hiding in the writing of the plank in the League of Nations, the drafting of the platform for the Republican National Convention has assumed an importance almost equaling that of nominating a candidate for the Presidency.

Senator Johnson's utterances relative to the attitude of the party on the League of Nations were construed generally as a part of his plan for a spectacular drive to obtain the presidential nomination.

They were taken also by party leaders who are hoping for a compromise on the platform as an indication that Senator Johnson is determined to make trouble unless his views not only receive serious consideration but are accepted largely by the Committee on Resolutions.

Following his arrival and his posting of his challenge, the Californian, quick, impetuous and final, began the work of organization for the struggle of next week that will make or unmake him.

The comment upon the demonstration by the representatives of the other candidates well can be imagined—a weak imitation of the historic dash of Roosevelt and a failure so far as impressing the convention throng was concerned.

The Johnson activities are making progress chiefly because of the confused state of affairs. There is no real light on the situation. Listening posts abound. Hunch seekers are legion. It is a fertile field for such operations and no pains are spared to fling poisoned darts at both Wood and Lowden. Elimination of those two candidates would give Johnson the whip hand.

What Chairman Hays and most of the members of the national organization hope to avoid is a direct issue with Senator Johnson, Senator William E. Borah and other "irreconcilables" on the treaty.

Efforts will be made within the next two or three days to prepare a plank somewhat along the line of the Indiana platform, which, it is hoped by party leaders, will be satisfactory.

It is evident that the drive against the leaders of the contest will contain the warning that it will be futile to name either of them because of the certainty of disaster growing out of the revelations concerning the money and the interests behind them.

The Johnson event was discounted, but not the action of Pennsylvania in proclaiming the candidacy of Governor Sproul. This utterly has upset the calculations made for months, and many of the wisest of the political diviners are at a loss to make estimates upon the consequences it will cause.

There are well-defined stories that Eastern leadership, anticipating a contest between proper conservatism and dangerous radicalism, is making provision for champions who will represent that section and what they term sanity.

Sproul is a dangerous quantity. Months ago William Jennings Bryan gave to the country an insight into his strength in a certain direction by saying that he was the strongest candidate the Republicans could name. The Nebraskan measures men by the test of their acceptance to the prohibition organization, and this evidently has been applied to the new aspirant. If powerful temperance forces are thrown behind him his chances will be improved wonderfully.

The Lowden boom has suffered a most severe shock. It came at a time when matters were proceeding most favorably for the cause of the Illinois executive. Many men experienced in national campaigns expressed doubt that the Republican party could afford to go to the people this year with such a dangerous weapon in the hands of the Democratic party. On all sides there was agreement that Senator William E. Borah had done his work well. The Senate investigation was a child of brains. He wanted to eliminate Wood and Lowden to give Senator Hiram Johnson clear sailing. A robust opinion here agrees he had done just that.

Failure of United States Senator Warren G. Harding to leave Washington today did not interfere with the spread of the movement to take him up early as a second choice. It is recognized universally that he has come out of the fire in Washington virtually unscathed and, through the exposure of the large Wood campaign fund, with a good excuse for the poor showing he made. It is no secret that the sound, conservative business element which favored an administrator and experienced man of affairs like Lowden also have held Harding in high estimation and have looked upon him as the logical alternative in the event that an untoward development arose.

Now that the misfortune has come, there is a turning toward the Ohio candidate as the ideal representative of the Middle West.

THE PRESIDENCY.

If Grimes is our next President, the land will be in clover; we all shall bask in sweet content, our troubles will be over. So say the boys who whoop for Grimes, and fix his divers fences, and him we ought to dig some dimes to pay campaign expenses. If Grimes wins out, the useful lad who's always busy toiling, will never lack a helpful scud to keep the kettle boiling. And in the bank he'll have a hoard of large gunmetal dollars, and he will own a nice tin Ford, and Sunday shirts and collars. If Grimes wins out the idle jay will have no decent standing; he'll loaf throughout the golden day, free soup and pies demanding. 'Twill be the same if Grimes should lose, his hopes to ashes turning; all kinds of men will get their dues, will get just what they're earning. The man who buckles down to work will find the times are booming, and we will see the village shirk in some cheap poorhouse rooming. I'll vote for Grimes, but if he wins I'll keep on sawing maple, that I may fill my shelves and bins with fancy grub and staple.

BEAUTY CHATS

EDNA KENT FORBES

VALUE OF OLIVE OIL

One woman wrote to me the other day, and said she had tried hard to follow such of the beauty hints as she thought applied to her own case—"only," she said "there seems to be so many things to do, and it is a lot of trouble and takes a lot of time—though perhaps I need more beauty treatments than most women. But do you follow your own advice about these things?" she asked.

Of course that reminded me of the old proverb about "The shoemaker's wife goes barefoot." However, I could tell my correspondent that I do follow my own treatments in all the essential things—by which I mean in the tonics, and exercises and diet. And about this I want to speak today.

I have often advised people to take olive oil. There are few things of used externally is a wonderful cleanser for the skin, and it also nourishes it. It is splendid, used by itself or in a cold cream, to smooth out wrinkles, and to keep the complexion soft and youthful.

Internally it will prevent a chronically constipated condition it will aid digestion, and so benefit the complexion even more than when used externally—and it will make fat. That's why I talked about myself in the column today—because I followed my own advice to others, and when I was very much run down, after having had the "flu" last winter, I took olive oil.

um today—because I followed my own advice to others, and when I was very much run down, after having had the "flu" last winter, I took olive oil.

The first month I took a tablespoonful three times a day, before each meal. That made me gain a little but not as much as I wanted, since I had 10 pounds to make up. So I increased the amount of oil—I took two tablespoonsful before each meal or six a day. And I made up the desired 10 pounds in six weeks.

Anyone who has been run down and has recovered, knows what a difference 10 pounds can make—not alone in looks, but in feelings. Often it is the difference between being half alive and thoroughly awake to the joy of mere living. Anyone who has been too thin for years knows that the gain of flesh to within some degree of proper healthy amount, means a physical rebirth.

In the matter of reduction—which, of course, has nothing to do with taking olive oil, since this the fat woman must avoid—it requires 20 to 30 pounds of flesh less to produce this feeling of splendid health. But anyone who has been unhealthy, fat or thin, will agree that the effort is very much worth while—take olive oil.

Johnson this afternoon and his vigorous declaration that he is determined that there shall be no "pussy-footing," evasion or hiding in the writing of the plank in the League of Nations, the drafting of the platform for the Republican National Convention has assumed an importance almost equaling that of nominating a candidate for the Presidency.

Senator Johnson's utterances relative to the attitude of the party on the League of Nations were construed generally as a part of his plan for a spectacular drive to obtain the presidential nomination.

They were taken also by party leaders who are hoping for a compromise on the platform as an indication that Senator Johnson is determined to make trouble unless his views not only receive serious consideration but are accepted largely by the Committee on Resolutions.

Following his arrival and his posting of his challenge, the Californian, quick, impetuous and final, began the work of organization for the struggle of next week that will make or unmake him.

The comment upon the demonstration by the representatives of the other candidates well can be imagined—a weak imitation of the historic dash of Roosevelt and a failure so far as impressing the convention throng was concerned.

The Johnson activities are making progress chiefly because of the confused state of affairs. There is no real light on the situation. Listening posts abound. Hunch seekers are legion. It is a fertile field for such operations and no pains are spared to fling poisoned darts at both Wood and Lowden. Elimination of those two candidates would give Johnson the whip hand.

What Chairman Hays and most of the members of the national organization hope to avoid is a direct issue with Senator Johnson, Senator William E. Borah and other "irreconcilables" on the treaty.

Efforts will be made within the next two or three days to prepare a plank somewhat along the line of the Indiana platform, which, it is hoped by party leaders, will be satisfactory.

It is evident that the drive against the leaders of the contest will contain the warning that it will be futile to name either of them because of the certainty of disaster growing out of the revelations concerning the money and the interests behind them.

The Johnson event was discounted, but not the action of Pennsylvania in proclaiming the candidacy of Governor Sproul. This utterly has upset the calculations made for months, and many of the wisest of the political diviners are at a loss to make estimates upon the consequences it will cause.

There are well-defined stories that Eastern leadership, anticipating a contest between proper conservatism and dangerous radicalism, is making provision for champions who will represent that section and what they term sanity.

Sproul is a dangerous quantity. Months ago William Jennings Bryan gave to the country an insight into his strength in a certain direction by saying that he was the strongest candidate the Republicans could name. The Nebraskan measures men by the test of their acceptance to the prohibition organization, and this evidently has been applied to the new aspirant. If powerful temperance forces are thrown behind him his chances will be improved wonderfully.

The Lowden boom has suffered a most severe shock. It came at a time when matters were proceeding most favorably for the cause of the Illinois executive. Many men experienced in national campaigns expressed doubt that the Republican party could afford to go to the people this year with such a dangerous weapon in the hands of the Democratic party. On all sides there was agreement that Senator William E. Borah had done his work well. The Senate investigation was a child of brains. He wanted to eliminate Wood and Lowden to give Senator Hiram Johnson clear sailing. A robust opinion here agrees he had done just that.

Failure of United States Senator Warren G. Harding to leave Washington today did not interfere with the spread of the movement to take him up early as a second choice. It is recognized universally that he has come out of the fire in Washington virtually unscathed and, through the exposure of the large Wood campaign fund, with a good excuse for the poor showing he made. It is no secret that the sound, conservative business element which favored an administrator and experienced man of affairs like Lowden also have held Harding in high estimation and have looked upon him as the logical alternative in the event that an untoward development arose.

Now that the misfortune has come, there is a turning toward the Ohio candidate as the ideal representative of the Middle West.

THE PRESIDENCY.

If Grimes is our next President, the land will be in clover; we all shall bask in sweet content, our troubles will be over. So say the boys who whoop for Grimes, and fix his divers fences, and him we ought to dig some dimes to pay campaign expenses. If Grimes wins out, the useful lad who's always busy toiling, will never lack a helpful scud to keep the kettle boiling. And in the bank he'll have a hoard of large gunmetal dollars, and he will own a nice tin Ford, and Sunday shirts and collars. If Grimes wins out the idle jay will have no decent standing; he'll loaf throughout the golden day, free soup and pies demanding. 'Twill be the same if Grimes should lose, his hopes to ashes turning; all kinds of men will get their dues, will get just what they're earning. The man who buckles down to work will find the times are booming, and we will see the village shirk in some cheap poorhouse rooming. I'll vote for Grimes, but if he wins I'll keep on sawing maple, that I may fill my shelves and bins with fancy grub and staple.

BEAUTY CHATS

EDNA KENT FORBES

VALUE OF OLIVE OIL

One woman wrote to me the other day, and said she had tried hard to follow such of the beauty hints as she thought applied to her own case—"only," she said "there seems to be so many things to do, and it is a lot of trouble and takes a lot of time—though perhaps I need more beauty treatments than most women. But do you follow your own advice about these things?" she asked.

Of course that reminded me of the old proverb about "The shoemaker's wife goes barefoot." However, I could tell my correspondent that I do follow my own treatments in all the essential things—by which I mean in the tonics, and exercises and diet. And about this I want to speak today.

I have often advised people to take olive oil. There are few things of used externally is a wonderful cleanser for the skin, and it also nourishes it. It is splendid, used by itself or in a cold cream, to smooth out wrinkles, and to keep the complexion soft and youthful.

Internally, it will prevent a chronically constipated condition, it will aid digestion, and so benefit the complexion even more than when used externally—and it will make fat. That's why I talked about myself in the column today—because I followed my own advice to others, and when I was very much run down, after having had the "flu" last winter, I took olive oil.

The first month I took a tablespoonful three times a day, before each meal. That made me gain a little but not as much as I wanted, since I had 10 pounds to make up. So I increased the amount of oil—I took two tablespoonsful before each meal or six a day. And I made up the desired 10 pounds in six weeks.

Anyone who has been run down and has recovered, knows what a difference 10 pounds can make—not alone in looks, but in feelings. After it is the difference between being half alive and thoroughly awake to the joy of mere living. Anyone who has been too thin for years knows that the gain of flesh to within some degree of a proper healthy amount, means a physical rebirth.

In the matter of reduction—which, of course, has nothing to do with taking olive; since this the fat woman must avoid—it requires 20 to 30 pounds of flesh less to produce this feeling of splendid health. But anyone who has been unhealthy, fat or thin, will agree that the effort is very much worth while—take oliveoil.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of Trinity church, and the Queen Esther Circle will observe the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, with a supper to be served in the Sunday school room Tuesday evening, June 8, at 6:30. The women are inviting their husbands to the affair. Mrs. Charles Snider is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Through an oversight, the name of John Fitzgerald, one of the graduates from the Yellow Springs high school, was omitted from the list of graduate which was published in the Gazette in connection with the story of the commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Anderson (former Franklin) of Cedarville, are announcing the birth of a daughter, Anna Margaret.

Miss Charlene Wilson, of Wilmington, is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Melvin Swadener, of Xenia and will also visit Miss Ethel Jacoby before returning home.

Chartreuse of Spinach—Pick over and wash thoroughly one-half peck of spinach. Cook covered with just enough water to prevent it from burning; cook until tender. Drain thoroughly and chop fine. Season with one tablespoon of butter, teaspoon of salt and reheat.

Butter a mold, line it with thin slices of hard boiled eggs. Fill with chopped spinach and press it in firmly. Put into pan of hot water and bake for a few minutes. Turn out and serve hot with drawn butter sauce.

Garnish the dish with hard cooked eggs cut in halves lengthwise; remove the yolks and fill with some of the cooked spinach. Garnish the top of spinach with the yolks which have been pressed through a sieve.

Spinach Souffle—Mix one cup of cold, cooked chopped spinach with the well-beaten yolk of one egg. Stir over the fire until the yolk is set; cool. Then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Fill a buttered baking dish, bake about fifteen minutes. Serve at once.

Bread Pudding—One small loaf of stale bread, one quart of milk, one-fourth cup of melted butter, two eggs (one egg will do), one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon vanilla.

Remove soft part from loaf and put through a colander; must be two cups of crumbs.

Scald the milk, pour this over crumbs, let stand until cool. When cool add eggs, sugar, butter, salt and vanilla. Mix all this; bake in a buttered dish in slow oven for one hour. Serve with vanilla sauce.

DISCOVERIES.

When Making Doughnuts—Add one teaspoon of vinegar (for about forty doughnuts); will prevent absorbing of lard. When using the vinegar, however, it will be necessary to use a little more sugar or doughnuts would be hardly sweet enough.

When Mixing Flour or cornstarch where it is to be used with sugar, such as for raisin pies, etc., mix sugar and flour together when dry; prevents lumps and is much easier for fillings for many things.

A Too-Much-Salt Remedy—When cooking vegetables, or even meats, if too much salt is added it can easily be remedied by dropping a pared raw potato into the kettle and cooking it with the over-salted food. Potatoes will take salt more readily than other vegetables and thereby the salt cooks into the potato.

A POSITION AT LAST

CHAPTER 30.

Wearily, but unwilling to admit I was discouraged, I crept into bed as soon as I had finished my dinner. I would try other places in the morning.

"References and experiences."

It might long, even in sleep, those two words buzzed in my brain. In every single place I had visited, they had been fired at me almost before I got inside the door.

"What is your experience? Where have you worked, and have you references?"

I could have gone to Mr. Shepherd, Mr. Wren, or others and asked for help. No doubt they would have done something for me—out of charity. If I was tempted to try, that thought kept me from them. If experiences and references were necessary to other business, men, they were necessary for them. Of course they would not ask for references, but the experience would be lacking.

Then I had another reason for keeping away from our old friends. I may have been false pride, yet had I my life to live over again I should do no different. I could not take a menial position with people with whom I had mingled upon terms of equality. It would be too embarrassing, too difficult for me.

So day after day I haunted offices. And night after night I crept into bed too exhausted to think.

Finally I concluded that my education, instead of fitting me to earn my living, had rather unfitted me. When I told that I had been to a fashionable

some time within the next three weeks.

Our popular auctioneer, John H. Wright, has been called to Lytle, to officiate at the sale of Nathan Smith, which will occur at that place Saturday, June 5.

COMPLETES BEST YEAR IN HISTORY SAYS COLLEGE PRESIDENT

Cedarville college has just completed the best year in its history, and is looking forward to what is expected to be a more profitable twelve months, according to the announcement of President W. R. McChesney, following the annual meeting of the trustee board Thursday.

There were 155 students in all de-boarding school, it seemed to militate against me, just as my good clothes seemed to. Some way they both seemed to awaken suspicion of me.

My money was gradually dribbling away, although I now had reduced my expenses by taking a still cheaper room up one more flight of stairs. I had times when I was so frightened I didn't know what to do. The world, which had been such a kind place to live in, suddenly became a hard, disagreeable place where everyone doubted everyone else, and no one was willing to help.

I had just $25 left. Rain was coming down in torrent, making my depression greater. I dared not remain in, so I started out to make the round of the department stores. I must find work.

I went into one, not knowing enough to use the employees entrance, and approaching a floor walker, asked if they would have anything for me. Just as he was about to speak, I saw Claudia Shepherd and Jack Pryor coming toward me, laughing gaily. I fairly bolted. As I sped along the street, leaving the store behind me, I breathed a prayer of thanksgiving that they had not seen me.

This experience unfitted me for doing anything more that day, and it also determined me not to try for a clerkship. I would be in danger of seeing people I knew constantly.

What was there left for me? What that I could do?

That night I pored over the papers looking for positions where I would escape the danger of meeting those I once had known. That I might go to some other city, occurred to me. But I hadn't money enough. Perhaps, after I earned some—the thought intrigued me. Finally I decided I would try for a position in some family as parlor maid. I surely knew the requirements of all house servants, even if I did not know how to do their work. I was quick—I would soon learn.

It was with burning cheeks that I made this decision to be a house servant. It was better paid—most of the advertisements mentioned the wages—and I would be able to hide myself. There was being made comfortable; there was nothing to take me into the streets.

I found a half dozen advertisements for maids, and putting on the simplest dress I owned I started out. I had been careful to look up the addresses so that I would not get into our old neighborhood. My near-encounter with Claudia and Jack, had made me cautious.

I had become almost discouraged when finally one woman—I was sure she was a harsh mistress—grudgingly said she would give me a trial.

"Reference aren't any good anyway," she said insultingly. "Most of you force them. But I can't run this big house without servants. So come the first thing in the morning, ready to work. I furnish aprons and caps, but no dresses."

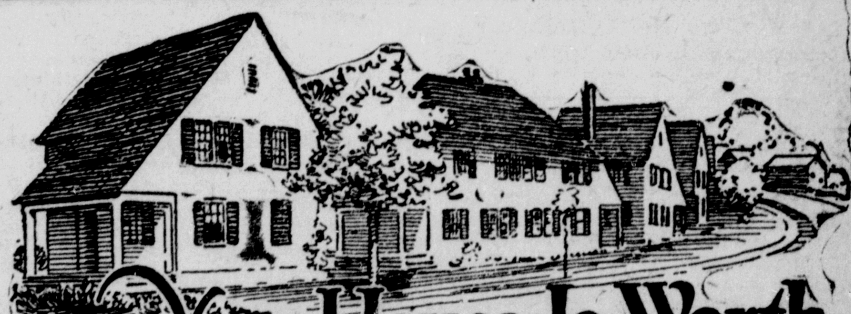

I promised to be early, then fled. "Oh, Dad, I wonder if you know!" I said aloud as hurried to the subway, my tears almost blinding me.

Walker Lanning of Fredricktown, was celebrated Thursday forenoon at the pastor's study in the First Presbyterian church the Rev. D. D. Dods officiating.

The bridal pair had no attendants, but the bride's mother and another relative witnessed the ceremony. Following the service, the party went to the home of the bride's uncle, Roscoe Conklin, on Chestnut street, where they were guests at luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Lanning left during the afternoon for their new home on a farm near Fredricktown.

What was there left for me? What that I could do?

That night I pored over the papers looking for positions where I would escape the danger of meeting those I once had known. That I might go to some other city, occurred to me. But I hadn't money enough. Perhaps, after I earned some—the thought intrigued me. Finally I decided I would try for a position in some family as parlor maid. I surely knew the requirements of all house servants, even if I did not know how to do their work. I was quick—I would soon learn.

It was with burning cheeks that I made this decision to be a house servant. It was better paid—most of the advertisements mentioned the wages—and I would be able to hide myself. Mother was being made comfortable; there was nothing to take me into the streets.

I found a half dozen advertisements for maids, and putting on the simplest dress I owned I started out. I had been careful to look up the addresses so that I would not get into our old neighborhood. My near-encounter with Claudia and Jack, had made me cautious.

I had become almost discouraged when finally one woman—I was sure she was a harsh mistress—grudgingly said she would give me a trial.

"Reference aren't any good any way," she said insultingly. "Most of you force them. But I can't run this big house without servants. So come the first thing in the morning, ready to work. I furnish aprons and caps, but no dresses."

I promised to be early, then fled. "Oh, Dad, I wonder if you know!" I said aloud as hurried to the subway, my tears almost blinding me.

Cedarville college has just completed the best year in its history, and is looking forward to what is expected to be a more profitable twelve months, according to the announcement of President W. R. McChesney, following the annual meeting of the trustee board Thursday.

There were 155 students in all departments last year. The endowment fund was increased to $110,000 during the year. It was announced at the meeting that $18,000 remains to be raised on the Morton Bible chair, which is a memorial to Dr. J. F. Morton who was for years pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian church in Cedarville.

The trustees re-elected all the faculty with the exception of Prof. Lois Rea, teacher of mathematics and science, and Prof. Oscar Wesley, head of the department of education who were not candidates for re-election. Rev. R. S. McElhinney, of Cedarville, who is a graduate of the Indiana State University, with the degree of A. B. A. M. and Ph. D., was elected head of the department of education.
